

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 1.

SPOUTSPRING, KY., AUGUST 15, 1896.

NO. 3^d.

The State Sunday School Convention will be held at Owensboro beginning August 25 and continuing three days.

Last Monday while a section gang on the L. & E. was making a short curve at Walker's trestle, about one mile the other side of Torpent, the hand car jumped the track and went dashing to the ground a distance of over fifty feet, killing two men instantly and seriously injuring three others.

A lady who is gifted with marvelously tenacious memory, has sold her head to a medical college of New York for $20. She has made a will leaving instructions that after death her body is to be decapitated and her head delivered to the surgeons for dissection, and the trunk and limbs are to be buried.

J. L. Hainline, candidate for county clerk of Montgomery county, was in town Thursday. Mr. Hainline is well known in this place and we are more than anxious to see our old friend elected to fill the office to which he aspires.

The Evening Free Lance will begin the publication of a weekly edition in about ten days. It will be a seven column, four page paper and Democratic in principle. The subscription price will be 50 cents a year. We predict for it a wide circulation.

Mt. Sterling capitalist are trying to organize a Stock Company to build a branch road from that city to Clay City. The road, if built, will be of untold benefit to Clay City and the entire Red river valley as it will be a competing road of the L. & E. which will give us a lower rate of freight.

Advertise in the Times and see how your trade will grow. Try it.
